The film shows methods of instructing farm boys, and in some instances girls, who have Catarrh, Pleurisy, and Sore Throat joined the agricultural clubs, how to raise better pigs and the methods used by club members in carrying out instructions. The first lesson taught in the film story is that it costs no more to feed and care for the pig of carefully selected stock than the scrub, while the results in meat produced is greatly in favor of the well bred animal. The picture shows further how to feed and care for the pigs, how to protect them from disease, and how to shelter them from the inclemency of winter and the heat of summer. The results of wise selection and intelligent care are shown in the well groomed, fat, healthy porkers wearinclemency of winter and the heat of ing the prize ribbons they have won at county and state fairs.
